Message from Principal

Dear parents and students: I extend a hearty welcome to all who are visiting the college website/prospects to acquaint themselves of the vital characteristics of the college - its aims, infrastructure, facilities , faculty members and achievements.. The college aims at churning of socially responsible and productive citizens who are able to meet the challenges of today's highly competitive and rapidly changing global world. The institution aspires to equip the learners with a steadily positive mind, zealous heart and indefinable spirit with which they utilize every bit of their academic expertise and intelligence for individual as well as social growth. For fashioning such individuals, the college offers multifarious platform in the form of numerous academic and co-curricular activities which are spread throughout the year. Every year a large number of students avail themselves of these opportunities for their all round development. To cultivate the head as well as the heart; to combine pleasure with learning; to enable a student to realize their potentials to the fullest and to endow every task with love and concern for all beings have always been and will continue to remain our cherished aim and endeavor. Thanks
